

It is appalling that any broadcast community in good conscience would try to prevent information on weather and traffic conditions, notably PUBLIC SAFETY ISSUES, from being aired on any commercial means.

FCC, stand up for the public right to information and don't cower to the lobbies of big business and selfish interests.